

Hersch, William R.

Tennessee Girl Becomes Bride of Ensign Hersch

MAR 6 1945

The marriage of Miss Hallah Mae Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Rodgers, of Cookeville, Tenn., and Ensign William Robert Hersch, son of Mrs. Ellen Hersch, 53 West Ettwein Street, and the late William Hersch, took place at 7 p. m. Saturday, at the parsonage of Rev. Chester L. Brachman, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hall of Bethlehem were the attendants. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's mother.

The bride was graduated from Central High School, Cookeville, Tenn., and was employed as secretary and receptionist in the office of Dr. George M. Saunders, of Cookeville.

The bridegroom was graduated from Liberty High School and the Tennessee Polytechnic Institute. On November 24, 1943, he received his commission as Ensign from Columbia University. He has just returned from overseas duty on the U. S. S. Gleaves and is awaiting re-assignment.
