OCT 26 1944

At the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Russell K. Laros, Sunset Acres, Bath Pike, last evening Miss Jean Laros and Lieut. Robert H. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, 827 Beverly Avenue, were married by the Rev. Henry Woll of Great Valley Presbyterian Church and nephew of Mrs. Laros, and the Rev. H. J. Croushore, pastor of Rosemont Lutheran Church.

Mr. Laros gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of old ivory satin with inserts of lace, a veil of illusion, and carried white orchids and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by her two sisters. Mrs. Talbot Shelton, matron of honor, was gowned in antique aqua taffeta and Miss Joan Laros, maid of honor, in antique rose taffeta. They carried sprays of brown orchids.

Mr. Young was his son's best man and Mr. Shelton and James Baldwin of Princeton, N. J., were ushers.

William Harms of New York City, concert pianist, played the traditional wedding music. A reception followed at the home, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Buck Hill Falls in the Pocono Mountains. They will reside in Lexington, Va.

The bride is a graduate of Moravian Seminary and Pine Manor Junior College. The bridegroom was graduated from Andover and Princeton University and was attending Harvard Law School at the time he entered the Army. He is a second lieutenant in the Army Ordnance and is stationed at Lexington, Va.
