

Stevancsz, Victor
IVAN

Brothers Win Advancement

APR 30 1943

Julius Victor Stevancsz, 23, left, 'phoned his parents Wednesday night from Craig Army Air Field, Selma, Ala., of his impending promotion to second lieutenant in the Army Air Force and receipt of his wings, scheduled for yesterday. He and Ivan, 22, right, his brother, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stevancsz, 200 East Third Street, Bethlehem.

Lieut. Stevancsz enlisted October 17, 1941 after studying a year at Lehigh University. He is a graduate of Liberty High School and played baseball as an amateur sport.

Ivan, recently advanced to the grade of corporal, is in North Africa, having gone across last October. He is a member of a regiment of coast artillery and enlisted September 16, 1940 in the old 213th Regiment. He is also a graduate of Bethlehem High School, played football, baseball and was active in other sports. He was last heard from March 13.
