

Not a Bad Job Has Lt. Commander Schultz

NEW CALEDONIA—Lt. Commdr. Robert M. Schultz, Bethlehem, Pa., explains the Navy Welfare setup to four of the forty-six newly-arrived Red Cross workers, fresh from the States, during New Caledonia orientation course. Left to right:

Marian Freedman, Passaic, N. J.; Mary Hughes, Glove, Ariz.; Lorraine Smith, Syracuse, N. Y.; and Ethel McDonald, Stevens Point, Wis. Lt. Commdr Schultz was formerly Bethlehem's recreation director. Signal Corps photo.

September 1, 1944