

Reinsmith, Harlan
Reinsmith, Shirley

Given Award

DEC 13 1944

Staff Sergeant Harlan Reinsmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Reinsmith, 1553 East Third Street, was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received somewhere in France August 18, 1944.

He enlisted July 19, 1941, and received his basic infantry training at Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Camp Phillip, Ariz. He was sent overseas to England in the latter part of May, 1943 and on to France.

Holder of the Expert Combat Infantryman Award, he is recuperating in a hospital in France at present. His wife, the former Shirley Koons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Koon of Allentown, is stationed with the Women's Army Corps at Fort Dix.

December 13, 1944