

Leibert, Gerald

Home From Sicily

SEP 8 1943

Gerald Leibert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Leibert, 64 East Ettwein Street, now an electrician's mate, first class, U. S. Navy, recently spent a five-day furlough with his parents after completing his third trip across the Atlantic. His last voyage included action in the invasion of Sicily, for which he received a credit citation from the Navy Department. He enlisted in the Navy August 17, 1942, and received his basic training at Newport, R. I., later graduating from Electrician's Mate School at Newport. He was transferred to Norfolk, Va., and then placed aboard ship.
