

Meinberg, Raymond C.

Lt. Raymond Meinberg
Taking Part In Shanghai 'Sea-Lifting'

SHANGHAI, China—Hundreds of vehicles and guns, together with thousands of men and animals of the New Sixth and Seventy-first Chinese Nationalist Armies, have been sea-lifted from Shanghai during the past three months. Playing an important part in the Chinese troop movement activities is First Lieutenant Raymond C. Meinberg, 422 Cherokee St., Bethlehem, son of August Meinberg.

Educated at North Scranton Junior High, Scranton, Lt. Meinberg was employed as a flour inspector by Adolf Berkowitz, 200 Blvd. Ave. Throop, Pa., in civilian life. Called to active service, September 25, 1937, he served in various camps in all parts of the United States before he came to Kunming via the Hump on October 7, 1945.

Prior to his present duty as assistant to Executive Liaison Officer, Troop Movement Section, G-3, United States Forces, China Theater, Lt. Meinberg was assigned to 513th Troop Carrier.

May 3, 1946