

Linge, William C.

TRAINS IN ALABAMA

Aviation Cadet William Christ Linge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Linge of 325 East Laurel Street, Bethlehem, has reported to the Army Air Forces Basic Flying School at Courtland, Ala., for the third stage of training as a cadet pilot. This air base, only until recently the site of flourishing cotton fields, is alive today with the roar of Uncle Sam's planes flying overhead.

December 20, 1943