

Maintz, William M.

Hellertown Man
Made 2nd Lieutenant 1943

William M. Maintz was commissioned second lieutenant on Sept. 6 upon completion of the aviation meteorology course at the Army Air Force Technical Training Command weather school at Grand Rapids, Mich.

He was graduated as a weather officer. The nine months concentrated course trained him to analyze weather and to prepare forecasts. He will be assigned as officer in charge of a weather station and as forecaster.

Lieut. Maintz attended Hellertown High School, Moravian College and New York University. Prior to his station at the Grand Rapids Post he was at Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Maintz, live at 1022 New Jersey Avenue, Hellertown, Pa.

September 10, 1943