CPL. FRANK GREENFIELD

Local Army Vet Assigned As Recruiter

For the first time in several years, a local veteran is to be assigned to the Army Recruiting Office in the Post Office building here: He is Cpl. Frank G. Greenfield, 834 Bridge St., who prior to his recent reenlistment, served nine years and 10 months previous service.

Cpl. Greenfield was stationed in Manila with the 31st Infantry from 1937 to 1940. Upon completion of maneuvers in the States, he was sent back overseas to Africa, landing at Oran, November 11, 1942, with a Medical Collecting Company.

The Corporal wears six bronze stars which represent action in Algeria, French Morocco, Naples-Foggia, Rome-Arno, Sicily and Tunisia. While overseas he served with Gen. Mark Clark's 5th Army, Gen. Patton's 3rd Army and the British 1st Army.
