

Healey, John

Was In Aleutians

John Healey, 1943 Kemmerer Avenue, left yesterday to rejoin his outfit in the North Pacific Command after having passed a furlough with his wife in this city. Enlisting in 1942 Healey, after his initial training, was sent to the West Coast and subsequently to Alaska and the Aleutians. He returned a corporal, wears the expert rifleman's medal and four battle ribbons. His return to duty was made via Canada, destination undisclosed.
