

Schreiber W.P.

Transferred to Indiana

W. P. Schreiber, formerly of the Schreiber Radio Hospital, West Broad Street, now serving as a U. S. Government Inspector in the U. S. Signal Corps, located in Chicago, and who was visiting last week in the home of Rev. D. A. King, 238 West Fairview Street, has been transferred to Marion, Ind. He left for his new assignment on Saturday. Mrs. Schreiber, who is the daughter of Rev. Mr. King, will remain in the city a few weeks before joining her husband at Marion.
