

Trythall, William D.

In Navy A Year

William D. Trythall, Fireman First Class, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Trythall of Wydhor, has rounded out a year's service in Uncle Sam's Navy. He enlisted March 21 of last year, a week before celebrating his 18th birthday anniversary, and was sent to Bainbridge, Md., to receive his boot training. He completed a Diesel mechanics course at Gulfport, Miss., and was sent to Fort Pierce, Fla., for amphibious training.

Fireman 1/C Trythall is stationed in the Pacific at present. In civilian life, Trythall attended Coopersburg High School and was employed by the Glickman Motor Company.

March 21, 1945