

Kuklenty, Richard C.
Kuklenty, Paul

Bethlehem Soldier Made First Lieutenant

CAMP CLAIBORNE, La.—Leut. Richard Charles Kuklenty, executive officer, Anti-Tank Company, 410th Infantry Regiment, a unit of the Cactus Division, has been promoted to first lieutenant.

Lieut. Kuklenty, a son of Mrs. Charles H. Kuklenty, 402 Prospect Avenue, Bethlehem, was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company, as a heat treater.

He is a graduate of the Bethlehem High School and attended Penn State College for two years. While at Penn State Lieutenant Kuklenty studied forestry. He also attended, for one year, the Liberal Arts School at Lehigh University.

Cpl. Paul E. Kuklenty, a brother, is in the Army Air Forces.

Before coming to the 103rd Division, in October 1943, he was an instructor in infantry at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and Fort McClellan, Ala.

July 24, 1943