Two Bethlehem Girls Complete WAVE Training

DEC 16 1943

Two young women from Bethlehem and one from Bath who joined the WAVES, have completed their basic training and indoctrination course at Hunter College and received their rank and assignments.

Miss Marion Elizabeth Krier, daughter of Mrs. Bertha A. Krier, 453 Brighton Street, this city, is now a seaman second class and has been sent to Georgia State College for Women. She attended Liberty High School and Bethlehem Business College and was employed by Howard E. Moore, receiver, Commercial National Bank, Philadelphia, before entering the service. She has a brother, Cpl. T. Ralph Krier and a brother-in-law, Second Lieut. Jack Turman, in the service, also.

Miss Mary Ann Kokot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kokot, 405 East Fourth Street, has been sent to the Naval Training School at Sampson, N. Y., and is also rated as a seaman second class. She attended Liberty High School and was formerly employed by the United States Signal Corps.

Mrs. Virginia Gilbert Frey Werkheiser, wife of Erwin T. Werkheiser, U. S. Army, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frey, of Main Street, Bath, is a seaman second class. She has been sent to the Chelsea Naval Hospital, Chelsea, Mass., as a hospital apprentice.
