

Landrock, Robert

Cpl. Robert Landrock Ends Marine Service

Corporal Robert Landrock, U. S. Marines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman P. Landrock, 610 South Bishophorpe St., has returned to civilian life, being honorably discharged last Wednesday at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Chicago.

A member of the Leathernecks for almost five years, "Bob" spent the past 24 months in the Pacific theatre of operations, and participated in the scraps at Okinawa and Peleliu. Following the cessation of hostilities, he was a member of the U. S. liberation forces sent to China.

Before entering his country's service, he was employed as a draftsman by Bethlehem Steel Company.

February 19, 1946