

Thornburg, Robert N.

Discharged From Military Service 7 1945

Sgt. Robert M. Thornburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thornburg Jr., of Seneca Street, yesterday returned from Camp Fannin, Tex., having received an honorable discharge last Sunday.

He entered the U. S. Army in July 1943, and spent a year on overseas duty from July 1944 to July 1945. He was wounded in Germany April 16, 1945, when hit on the head by a piece of shrapnel. After receiving treatment at the field hospital, he resumed his duties with his outfit attached to the U. S. Third Army under Gen. Patton.

He returned to Fort Dix, N. J., in July 1945, from which place he was sent to Camp Bowie, Tex.

Prior to his entering the service, Sgt. Thornburg attended Franklin and Marshall College, pursuing an academic course. He intends to enter college shortly, taking a mechanical engineering course. He may go to Penn State College.
