

Kingston, Kenneth A.

Now a Corporal

Kenneth A. Kingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Kingston, 925 East Fourth Street, who received his corporal's chevrons Monday, November 1, yesterday observed his 21st birthday while home on a furlough. Now attached to an Observation Corps at Fort Sill, Okla., he will report back for duty November 23. Prior to entering the service last January he was a trap tester for the Sarco Company, Fountain Hill. A brother, Corporal William Kingston, who will be 23 in January, has been with the U. S. Marines in the South Pacific for the past 18 months. Another brother, Pvt. Arthur Kingston, 25, is serving "somewhere" with a Regular Army unit.

November 11, 1943