TWO FROM BETHLEHEM AT KANSAS FLYING SCHOOL

Cadets H. T. Schussler and Russell
J. Megargle Seek Silver Wings.

AAF Basic Flying School, Garden City, Kansas, Feb. 6 (Special to Globe-Times).—An eager group of potential pilots for Uncle Sam's rapidly expanding air force has reported to this army flying school for the second stage of their intensive training.

These men, who have completed their primary training at other schools, will spend nine weeks here, after which they will be assigned to advanced schools for the final phase of their instruction. Two from here are:

Aviation Cadet H. T. Schussler, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schussler, of 1709 Cottage Avenue, who was employed as an electrician in the Bethlehem Steel mills before entering the service. Cadet Schussler served three years in the Navy before receiving his appointment as an aviation cadet. He received his primary flight training at Cimarron Field, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Aviation Cadet Russell J. Megargle, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Megargle, of 35 Avenue B, Pembroke Park, graduated from the Air Forces' Technical School at Chanute Field, Ill., before receiving his appointment as an aviation cadet. He received his primary flight training at Cimarron Field, Oklahoma City, Okla. Feb 6 1943
