

Keim, Jacob
Warren

Brothers With Pacific Fleet

JUL 26 1945

JACOB KEIM

WARREN KEIM

For the first time in two years, Jacob and Warren Keim, sons of John Stanley Keim, formerly of Ohio, met in the Marshall Islands, while serving aboard their L.S.M.'s.

Jacob has seen two months overseas duty in Guam. He was inducted February 23, 1945 and left for Sampson, N. Y. to receive his boot training. He then volunteered for Seabee duty and was sent to Davis-ville, R. I. where he completed his advanced training. His wife, the former Helen Leibensperger, and their three children, Diana, Carol, and Frederick, reside at 116 Spruce Street, with their grandfather.

Warren, a former employee of the Pennsylvania Power and Light

Company, has seen a year's duty in the South Pacific. He was inducted October 4, 1943 and after completing his training at Sampson and Virginia, was assigned to active duty with the U. S. Navy. His wife, the former Loretta O'Hearn, resides at 640 Hess Street. Jacob's twin brother, Henry, is a Pfc. in the South Pacific.

July 26, 1945