

To Be Chaplain

LIEUT. MORDECAI BRILL

JUL 2 1943 Center Bids Farewell to Rabbi Brill

Rabbi Mordecai L. Brill, recently appointed U. S. Army chaplain, leaving shortly for Harvard University, was feted last evening at Brith Sholom Community Center. Upon the completion of the army chaplain training course at Harvard, Rabbi Brill will be assigned to an army camp.

Dr. L. C. Zeigler, president of Brith Sholom Center, presided. Vocal solos by Max Rajeck and Mrs. Brill and instrumental music by Dorothy Goldberg were presented. A reading by Mrs. Lawrence Phillips was set against an original musical background prepared by Max Rajeck and by Rabbi and Mrs. Brill.

Greetings and congratulations were extended to the rabbi by the following presidents of the Community Center organizations: Mrs. Isadore Goldberg, for the Sisterhood; Mrs. Leon Kaplan, B'nai Brith Auxiliary; Joseph Coleman, Men's Zionist Club; Max Levitz, B'nai Brith; Julius Newman, A. Z. A. advisor; Philip Frishberg, representing Hadassah, and Abraham Weissman, executive secretary of the Center. Harold Hirshberg presented Rabbi Brill with a farewell gift from the Center board of directors.

In his address of acceptance and farewell Rabbi Brill reviewed briefly the years of his work in this vicinity, mentioning many of his associations. He has an especial fondness for Bethlehem as being the home and birthplace of his wife.

At the close of the meeting a light supper was served by the Sisterhood, in charge of Mrs. Isadore Gold, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Philip Frishberg and Mrs. L. C. Zeigler.
