Local Priest To Become Army Chaplain

MAR 8 1945

Rev. John V. McKlinton, assistant rector at SS. Simon and Jude Church, West Broad Street, for the past three years, leaves his duties there tomorrow to await his commission from the United States Army Third Service Command in Baltimore, Md.

Rev. McKlinton, who came to SS. Simon and Jude parish from St. Mary Magdeline Church, Lost Creek, Pa., was ordained into the priesthood in June, 1941, at SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Philadelphia.

James McKlinton, his brother, was killed in action two years ago. A sister Marie is serving with the Army Nurses Corps in France and another brother, Edward, is serving in the South Pacific.

Father McKlinton leaves for his home in Summit Hill, Pa., tomorrow to await assignment.
