

Heller, Leonard

MARINE COMMENDED

Among a group of Marine officers and enlisted men recently commended by Lieut. Col. Lewis B. Fuller for suppressing a Japanese attempt to take Henderson Field on Guadalcanal last October 24, the Marine Corps announced yesterday was Lieut. Leonard Heller, of 510 West Broad Street, Quakertown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heller. Lieut. Heller, 24, enlisted in 1938 and has seen action in the South Pacific. Following duty there, his outfit was relieved by the Army, and sent to Australia for a rest period. Lieut. Heller's wife, the former Thelma M. Leister, and their daughter, Ferne, reside in Pennsburg.
