

Smith, Sam G.

1st Lieutenant

APR 26 1945

15TH AAF IN ITALY—Recently promoted to a first lieutenancy, Sam G. Smith, whose wife, Alma H. Smith, lives at 2123 Eaton Ave., Bethlehem, shown at his desk. He is assistant adjutant of a B-24 Liberator heavy bombardment group, based in Italy.

In the army since October, 1940, Smith has been overseas since last October. He was formerly a junior salesman for the Valentine Textile Corp., N. Y. City. A former navigator, he is Postal Officer, Mess Officer and Personal Affairs Officer in addition to his primary duty.

Smith is serving with a unit which is a veteran of more than 240 combat missions against the Nazis and which has twice been awarded the Distinguished Unit Citation for outstanding performances in aerial combat action.

April 26, 1945