Brothers Meet

Two brothers held a happy reunion in England after serving in the U. S. Army for three years, during which time they had not seen each other. They are Captain Edward D. Schaffer and Cpl. James H. Schaffer, sons of John Schaffer, of Bath. MAY 10 1945

Word was received by Mrs. Evelyn Schafer, 386 East Walnut Street, Nazareth, wife of Cpl. James H. Schaffer, of the meeting. Captain Schaffer had a seven day leave and met his brother in England, flying from France.

Cpl. Schaffer entered the Army on April 13, 1942, and was sent overseas in October, 1943. He was stationed in Ireland and then in England, where he is a member of the ground crew in the Air Force.

Captain Schaffer entered the service in 1942 and went overseas in August, 1943. He is a member of the Airborne Troops and has seen action in France, Holland and Germany.
