

Santee, John C.

Localites At Same Station

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER STATION, England—When 2nd Lt. John C. Santee, of Bethlehem (right), reported for combat duty with the 20th Fighter Group he discovered his commanding officer, Lt. Col. Robert P. Montgomery, was also a Bethlehemite. Here the fellow townsmen, who have flown together for the past three months are shown beside the Mustang commander's plane just after returning from a mission over Germany. Col. Montgomery, 28, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Montgomery, of 1953 Eaton Avenue. He has been overseas for 18 months. Lt. Santee, 23-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. D. K. Santee, of Route 2, Bethlehem, arrived in England in November.
