

Maura, Orlando "Fubs"

Returns to "Civvies"

Seaman 1/c Orlando "Fubs" Maura, U.S. Coast Guard, is back in civilian life. Last Saturday he was given his honorable discharge after service of 29 months.

While working for Uncle Sam, he was a member of a crew assigned to patrol duty between Maryland and Virginia, and participated in a number of rescues.

He returns to his duties as Constable of the Fifth Ward. Before entering the service, he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. His home is 1144 East Mechanic St. FEB 12 1946

February 12, 1946