

Talaber, John
Joseph
William

Brothers in Service

John, Joseph and William Talaber, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Talaber, 1416 East Fifth Street, are serving their country, one in the Army, one in the Navy and one in the U. S. Merchant Marine.

John is a private first class in the Army. He has been in service a year and nine months and is at present stationed at Camp Somerset, Westover, Md. Joseph is in the Navy. He enlisted October 28, 1942, and is now at South Brooklyn, N. Y.

The third brother is William, one of the courageous Merchant Marine sailors who have been getting the munitions and men to the fighting front. He entered that service last September 10 and is at present at Brooklyn.

MAR 1 1943

March 1, 1943