

Sigmon, Jackson M.

Soldier Admitted To Practice Law In County Court

No. 3 Soldier Admitted to Practice
Private Jackson M. Sigmon, U.
S. Army, stationed at Aberdeen, Md., was admitted to practice in the courts of Northampton County.

Sigmon, a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William Sigmon, of 522 West Third Street, Bethlehem, became a lawyer
on motion of Louis Long, of Bethlehem.

The soldier-barrister is a product of the Bethlehem schools.
After getting his diploma at Bethlehem High, Sigmon went on to get his degree at the University of Pittsburgh, Harvard and Duke University, where he finished his law work.

July 13, 1943