Candidate Grubb at City Hall:

- worked 27 years in various capacities in the Department of Community and Economic Development
- critical for the City to have a comprehensive code of ethics
- proposed several years ago but rejected by several Council members including opponent Reynolds
- need transparency, honesty, integrity in a system built on checks and balances
- must deflect solicitations for special favors
- no campaign donations from Bethlehem major developers (deep pockets)
- also no endorsements from City and elected officials (you scratch my back, I'll scratch yours)
- will act solely in best interest of residents

Let's believe in a better Bethlehem.
