

Chernasky, Roman

Farewell Party

A surprised farewell party was held at the home of Roman Chernasky, on Saturday, in honor of his son Paul, who enlisted in the U. S. Navy. He left Tuesday, to report for training.

On Sunday, February 21, a prayer was offered for him by the Rev. Adrian Merejko, at the St. Nicholas Russian Church. FEB 26 1943

Games and dancing was enjoyed, refreshments were served and the table and rooms were decorated in red, white, and blue.

The new enlistee graduated from Washington Junior High School, and attended Bethlehem Technical High before his enlistment.
