

Reichard, Frederick J.

LOCAL SOLDIER JOINS ^{15 42}
May CAMP MUSIC GROUP

Private Frederick Joseph Reichard, son of Joseph and Marion Reichard, has been selected a member of the Dale Mabry Reveliers, an organization formed recently to present musical programs and dramatic skits at Dale Mabry Field in Tennessee.

Private Reichard began playing the violin at 14 and studied with Mischakoff, who is the present conductor of the N. B. C. Symphony.

For the past six years he studied under Pauline Michael and Leopold Auer. He enlisted in the air corps branch in March, 1942, and at present he thinks being a soldier is more important than being a musician.
