

Furchner Jr., Frederick

CO-PILOT IN PACIFIC AREA

On duty somewhere in the Pacific area for some time, and long a thorn in the side of Japanese shipping, has been Lieut. Frederick Furchner, Jr., cousin of four residents of this section: Paul, of 909 Itaska Street, Carl, of 523 Alaska Street, Harry and Vance, both of Springtown, and John, living in Allentown. August Furchner, 637 Piot ave., is an uncle of the young naval officer who has been co-pilot of a Flying Fortress and who took a notable part in the battle of Midway. MAR 31 1943

LT. FREDERICK FURCHNER, JR.

Lieut. Furchner, Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Furchner, now of Grant's Pass, Ore., was under fire when the Japs made their sneak attack on Pearl Harbor and Hickam Field December 7, 1941. A top flight golfer in his home community he was enjoying a round of golf while off duty at the time of the attack. He was stationed at Hickam Field at the time.

March 31, 1943