

Daggett, William H.

Coming Home

PFC. W. H. DAGGETT

V-E Day Brings Happy Greetings From Soldier Son

V-E Day was a day of rejoicing for Mrs. Betty Malloy, of 511 Sioux Street. A few minutes after President Truman made the official announcement, she received the following telegram:

"All well and hearty. On my way home. Will see you soon."

It was signed by her son, Pfc. William H. Daggett, taken prisoner on August 6 by the Germans. He was confined in a prison camp known as Stalag 7-B, located at Memmingen, near Munich, one of the last prison camps to be liberated.

May 8, 1945