

Bellizzi, Frank
" , Joseph

Meet In England

Private First Class Frank Bellizzi met his brother, Private First Class Joseph Bellizzi, for the first time in 18 months "somewhere in England," and together they celebrated the event talking over experiences they've had since going overseas and of the folks back here. Pfc. Frank entered the service in January, 1943, completed his training at Camp Robinson, Ark., and Fort Bragg, N. C., before going overseas in October, 1944. He is attached to the Quartermaster Corps. Pfc. Joseph entered the service in February, 1944, and also trained at Fort Bragg, N. C. He left for overseas duty with the Field Artillery in December. Since meeting his brother in England, Joseph has been sent to France. Their parents reside at 1207 Wood Street.