

Werley, Carl L.

Carl Werley Advanced

Carl L. Werley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Werley, 618 Spring St., has recently been advanced to Seaman 1/C, at his Seabee base on Guam.

On July 19, 1944, Werley enlisted for a four-year "hitch" and was sent to Sampson, N. Y., to receive his boot training. From there he was sent to Camp Beaver, Ore., and on to an embarkation point in California, from where he went to Pearl Harbor. He had been stationed in Iwo Jima, Guam, Tinian Islands and Japan, before returning to his present base.

Before enlisting, S1/C Werley was employed at the Food Fair. He is a former Globe-Times carrier.
