

Hallowell, Victor H.

Returns To States For Reassignment

T/4 Victor Harold Hallowell, 149 West Broad Street, who served nine and one-half months as a platoon carpenter in the Asiatic-Pacific theater of operations, was recently returned to the Atlantic City, N. J. redistribution station to await reassignment.

APR 12 1945
A recipient of the Good Conduct Medal and the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Ribbon, Hallowell will be given a series of tests to determine his fitness for continued service.

April 12, 1945