Anna Segata Bride Today of H. J. Ortwein Jr.

JUL 22 1944

At 4 o'clock this afternoon in St. Stanislaus Catholic Church, Miss Anna Josephine Segata, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Segata of 649 Shield Street, and the late Mr. Segata, and Pfc. Henry J. Ortwein Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ortwein of 327 Broadway, were married by the Rev. Stanley A. Slavinski.

Miss Madeline Ortwein, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Miss Dorothy Krusky, Mrs. Mary Stohl and Mrs. Theresa Kneiss, were brides maids. John Stohl was best man and Walter Krutsky, Albert Ortwein and Paul Kneiss were ushers.

Given in marriage by her brother, John Segata, the bride wore a gown of white satin with tulle veil and carried a bouquet of gladioli. The attendants wore gowns of net in rainbow colors and carried bouquets of roses to match their gowns.

Sister Irnays, church organist, played the traditional wedding music. The church was decorated with palms and gladioli.

A reception followed at the Holy Ghost Club, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Atlantic City, N. J. Mrs. Ortwein Jr., will return to Bethlehem and reside with her mother for the duration.

The bride attended Broughal High School and is employed at the Lehigh Valley Throwing Mills. The bridegroom attended Holy Ghost School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the Army. He is stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss.
