

Kokosky, George E.

RECEIVES CORPORAL STRIPES

—George E. Kokosky, (above), son of Mrs. Mary Marcisin, 534 Selfridge Street, who has sent word of his promotion on September 16 from that of private first class to corporal in the United States Army. Corporal George Kokosky was inducted into the Army June 28, 1941 and has been stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, for some time. He later went to Seattle, Washington, and there he had been a telephone operator. At present he is stationed at Camp Haan, California. Prior to his induction into the Army he was in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Prior to that time he attended Bethlehem Catholic High School.

DECEMBER 18, 1942