

Falatek, Paul J

Battle-Tried Men of Area Expected Home

AUG 16 1944

With the rotation plan of the Army now in operation, the Public Relations Officer of the Army Service Forces, Third Service Command, had released the names of the following Northampton County boys who have returned from overseas operations, or who may be expected shortly.

Bethlehem are: Pvt. Paul J. Falatek, Infantry, returning from 24 months overseas in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. He arrived at Fort George Meade, Md., recently, prior to reaching his home at 450 Adams Street, where he is visiting his family.

Pvt. Marcos J. Zayas, Infantry, returning from 18 months overseas in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. He arrived at Fort George Meade, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melquiades Zayas.

From Bangor is Tech. Sgt. Arthur DeThomas, Army Air Forces, returning from 30 months overseas in the Southwest Pacific Theater of Operations. He arrived at Camp Upton, L. I., prior to reaching his home at 821 Pennsylvania Avenue, Bangor.

From Roseto is Pvt. Anthony Campanado, Coast Artillery, returning from 29 months in the Southwest Pacific. He arrived at Camp Upton before reaching his home at Front Street, Roseto, where he is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Campanado.

From Nazareth, Pvt. James G. Mabus, Infantry, returning from 24 months overseas in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. He arrived at Fort Meade, Md., prior to reaching his home on Route No. 3, Nazareth, where he is visiting his family.

Aug. 16, 1944