Freemansburg Soldier Gets Look At Japan

Edward D. Kilpatrick, S1/C, son of Edward Kilpatrick, 58 Clearfield Street, Freemansburg, had a look at Japan last month while serving aboard a destroyer in the western Pacific. His 2100-ton ship, a veteran of six major engagements, went close to the shores of Shikoku, the Jap home island just south of Honshu. She was unchallenged.
