

Schaffer, Elwood J.

Schaffer-Ankeney

Lieut. Elwood J. Schaffer, U. S. Navy, son of John Schaffer, of Bath, and Miss Martha Ankeney, of Baltimore, Md., were married on Saturday afternoon in the Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Baltimore.

Lieut. Schaffer, a native of Bath, was graduated from Liberty High School in 1931, and Lehigh University, with the degree of Chemical Engineering, in 1935. He was an instructor at Lehigh for two years and later studied patent law at the University of Maryland, and was admitted to the Maryland bar. He had been stationed at Washington for the past year and will soon leave for Boston, for training for sea duty.
