

Carcione, Frances

ENTERS WAAC SCHOOL

Afc. Frances Carcione, of Bethlehem, recently entered WAAC Branch No. 1, Army Administration School, at Nacogdoches, Texas. This school is one of the many branches of the Army Administration School which are under the jurisdiction of the commanding general of the service command in which the branch schools are located. The adjutant general's school at Fort Washington, Maryland, is charged with the promulgation of training doctrine, the scheduling of programs, and the conduct and supervision of training and is commanded by Brigadier General Herbert C. Holdridge.

MAY 18 1943

May 18, 1943