

Reese, Truman

Nitschmann Teacher
Heard In Broadcast
From Italy's Capital

MAR 17 1945

A fifteen-minute talk heard throughout the Mediterranean theater of operations was broadcast from the Italian capital recently by Truman Reese, technician fifth grade, formerly of the English department of the Nitschmann Junior High School and director of the Sock and Buskin Dramatic Club. "When is the American Soldier Eligible to Come Home Under the Present Rotation System?" was the subject presented by Technician Reese as part of a "We Who Serve Speak" series of radio forums. Officer Reese is stationed in Rome in charge of testing for the Army Correspondence School with the Armed Forces Institute Office.

March 17, 1945