

Officer Advances
APR 27 1945

From Will Rogers Field in Oklahoma, comes the good news of Warrant Officer (j. g.) Kenneth D. King's recent advancement to Assistant Base Judge Advocate of Will Rogers Field. The Liberty High School and Bethlehem Business College graduate has been stationed at that base for the past four years. His wife, a native Oklahoman, and their 22-months old son reside near the field. Warrant Officer King is a son of John W. King of this city, and a brother of Mrs. Warren Scholl, Bath.
