

Eastright, Robert E.

Lt. Eastright Takes Bride In Virginia

MAR 18 1944

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Squire, of Emporia, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Patricia R. Squire, and Lieut. Robert E. Eastright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Eastright, of the Saucon Valley. The marriage took place at Camp Lee, Virginia, March 9, the Rev. Walter F. Humphrey, post chaplain, officiating. A brief reception followed at the chapel and a dinner for the bridal party and friends the eve of the wedding in the Half-Way House at Chester, Va.

Mr. Squire gave his daughter in marriage, and Miss Nancy Squire was her sister's maid of honor. Lieut. Robert N. Smith, of Racine, Wis., was best man and Capt. John W. Tierney, of Goshen, N. Y., was usher.

The bride is a graduate of the Pan-American School of Richmond, Va., and at present is working for the Camp Lee Public Relations Office. The bridegroom is a graduate of Blair Academy and Princeton University, where he was elected to the Campus Club and was co-chairman of the Literary Club. He is at present stationed at Camp Lee. He was inducted into the Army July, 1942, was commissioned in January, 1943 and promoted to the rank of first lieutenant in December, 1943.

The couple came north to New York on their wedding trip and now are visiting the bridegroom's parents in Bethlehem. They will live in Petersburg, Va.
