

Gasdaska, John G.

Okinawa Casualty
MAY 9 1945

Pfc. John G. Gasdaska, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gasdaska, 830 Hayes Street, was reported seriously wounded at Okinawa on April 10. According to a telegram he is at present stationed at a base hospital. He received his training at Camp Swift from where he was assigned to the A.S.T.P. at the Institute of Technology in Chicago, Ill. Pvt. Gasdaska is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High where he was active in both baseball and basketball. He will also be remembered as a player of the local American Legion baseball team. Before his induction he was a draftsman at the Bethlehem Steel Co.

May 9, 1945