

Bewley, Donald T
" , Robert
" , Loyal V

Lt. Donald Bewley
Home on "Delay Enroute"

Home on "delay enroute," Second Lieutenant Donald T. Bewley, son of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. L. V. Bewley, 1454 Main Street, expects to leave shortly for overseas duty in the European Theater of Operations, where he is hoping to meet his father, now stationed in Berlin.

Oct. 30 '45
Lt. Donald Bewley enlisted in the Army June 6, 1944. He is a 1944 graduate of Liberty High School with one semester at Lehigh University. His training was completed at Fort Bragg, N. C., Fort Knox, Ky. and Camp Hood, Tex. A brother, Robert, was recently discharged after two years as an Army Sergeant in Europe. He is now a student at Lehigh in the electrical engineering department. The boys' father, formerly head of the electrical engineering department at Lehigh, was a reserve officer in the Army and was called up for duty in April, 1942.

OCT 30, 1945