Miss Marion Muhr's Betrothal to Charles Redline Revealed

On Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Muhr, 1324 Broadway, announced the engagement of their only daughter, Marion Elizabeth, to Midshipman Charles Redline, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude S. Redline, 819 Tomblor Street. The wedding date has not been planned.

The engagement was revealed through a long distance telephone call from Notre Dame, Ind., where Miss Muhr went by plane to spend the holidays. The engagement was publicly announced at the Christmas Midshipmen's Ball at the Hotel Oliver, South Bend, Ind., which one thousand midshipmen attended.

Miss Muhr is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School and Cedar Crest College, Class of 1942, where she was active in many organizations including the Home Economics Club, Crestiad, college newspaper, Espejo, the year book, Athletic Association, Y. W. C. A. and the choir. At present Miss Muhr is Foods and Vocational Home Economics instructor at the Northampton High School.

Mr. Redline is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and is a graduate Pharmacist of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, class of 1940 where he was an active member of the band and the Upsilon Sigma fraternity. In March 1941 he entered the U. S. Naval Reserve and served as pharmacist at the Philadelphia Naval Hospital. He is now attending Officers Training School at the University of Notre Dame, where he will be graduated next month as an ensign. After his graduation Midshipman Redline will receive his assignment to a post not yet revealed. At Notre Dame he is head bandmaster.

Both are active members of St. Peter's Lutheran Church where Miss Muhr is a teacher in the Bible School and secretary of the senior choir.
