Bethlehemites With Bomber Group In Italy

FIFTEENTH AAF IN ITALY—
The 98th Bombardment Group recently completed its 400th combat mission when it struck rail communications at Vienna, Austria.

Targets have ranged from port installations to rail yards, with such important points as the submarine pens at Toulon, France, the arsenal at Vienna, Austria, and the oil fields at Ploesti, Romania, added to make its operating schedules the toughest in the Mediterranean Theater of War.

Original members from this area include, M/Sgt. Henry O. Albright, 1005 Jeter Avenue, Bethlehem, and S/Sgt. Howard G. Miller, North Fourth Street, Allentown.
